Message from the Patron-in-Chief

It is indeed a matter of immense pleasure for me to apprise you of the various activities undertaken by students of SUI in the recent past. SUI as a leading KP private sector university lays equal emphasis on curricular and co-curricular activities to groom its students to shoulder their future assignments in a responsible and befitting manner. While SUI has acquired distinction in academic and research, its students have simultaneously, shown exemplary talents in most of the competition at inter-varsity and Intravarsity level, which the readers will come across in this issue of the News Mag.

Dear Readers, while at the helm of affairs as VC Sarhad University, I am aware of certain constraints such as non-availability of sports ground and paucity of funds. Even then, efforts are in hand to maintain the academic level and the sport spirit of the students alive through holding sports and other co-curricular activities.

A glimpse of activities in the period under review in this report will provide you an insight of our commitment and dedication to maintain a leading role of SUI in KP. During this period, our Department of Textile & Fashion Designing clinched the top position in painting competition arranged by Qurtuba National University, while the Department of Business Administration, achieved first position in Business Plan Competition organized by FAST University, Peshawar campus. The SUI also, secured second position in EXPO-2014, arranged by the University of Swat.

Also, SUI facilitated HEC in arranging the 2nd round of Allama Iqbal Shield Debate Competition, Intersarsity Women's Squash Championship, 2013, Intersarsity Men's Tennis championship, 2014, and Intersarsity Zone "B" Basketball Championship, 2014 in a befitting manner. SUI also won the Best Drama Script Award in a competition held at Institute of Space Technology, Islamabad.

Respected Readers, It is my prime pleasure to share my views and humble contributions realizing the fact that much more is still needed to stay head and shoulder taller in our efforts to excel in our activities. Your suggestions and support however, will always strengthen our resolve to discharge our duties more effectively and I therefore, welcome it from the core of my heart.

Prof. Dr. Salim-ur-Rehman
Vice Chancellor

Establishment of QEC SUIT

SUIT Quality Enhancement Cell was established in 2014 with a vision to define quality, set standards and follow the overall mission of enhancing quality to specified standards, catering education economy by developing quality culture. QEC-SUIT is a growing component of the university. Its main responsibility is to implement the Quality imperatives as laid down by HEC through Quality Assurance Agency (QAA).

The key ambition for education is its compatibility, and the creation of knowledge economy. This can only be done through sensitization of the processes, curricula, and resources, being responsive to the global changes, and proceeding with the global shift in paradigm. The target of QEC is to create a quality culture through capacity building and research (faculty, infrastructure and curricula).

With the above targets QEC embarked on ambitious plan to enhance the quality of education in the university. Awareness sessions were organized in mechanical, civil, electrical, CSIT, business administration, chemistry, pharmacy, microbiology and biotechnology departments to assist them in preparation of self-assessment reports, while QEC implementation sessions were organized with Mechanical Engineering. Progress review meetings were held with mechanical, engineering, Computer & IT, civil engineering and electrical engineering departments. Furthermore workshops were successfully conducted on topics such as “Key to Successful Projects by using PMBOK Principals” and “3G and 4G Cellular Systems and Beyond” with prominent resource persons from NUST and other places were invited to enlighten the audience.
